1. Introduction and Background

1.1 There has been a steady rise in the population of senior citizens in India. The number of elderly persons increased from 1.98 crore in 1951 to 7.6 crore in 2001, and 10.38 crore in 2011. As per the Report of the Technical Group on Population Projections for India and States (2011-2036) submitted to National Commission on Population, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare the population of senior citizens in India is projected to increase from 10.38 crore in 2011 to 23 crores in 2036. The total population of India is projected to increase from 121.10 crore in 2011 to 152.20 crore in 2036. Therefore the percentage of senior citizens against total population is expected to increase from 8.4% to 14.9%.

1.2 General improvement in the health care facilities over the years is one of the main reasons for continuing increase in proportion of population of senior citizens. Ensuring that they not merely live longer, but lead a secure, dignified and productive life is a major challenge. The traditional norms and values of the Indian society laid stress on showing respect and providing care for the aged. However, in recent times, society is witnessing a gradual but definite decline of the joint family system, as a result of which a large number of parents are being neglected by their families exposing them to lack of emotional, physical and financial support. These older persons are facing a lot of problems in the absence of adequate social security. This reveals that ageing has become a major social challenge and there is a need to provide for the economic and health needs of the elderly and to create a social milieu, which is conducive and sensitive to the emotional needs of the elderly.

1.3 The challenge is to devise ways so that Senior Citizens across the nation can live actively engaged, self-reliant and productive life with dignity by involving all the following stakeholders :-

- a) Sr citizens themselves and their Informal caregivers/families (unpaid care givers) in the community.
- b) Formal Care-Givers (paid)
- c) Government- be it in Elderly Care or Social Welfare departments, Health or State Government in general especially people at grass-root/ cutting edge level
- d) Care Institutions
- e) Health care Institutions
- f) Local Bodies/ Corporates
- g) The Non-Profit or Non-Governmental Associations
- h) The Think Tanks
- i) The Media and finally the Public at large.

1.4 Rationale of the Scheme

This Scheme lays down in one document, the vision, mission and the immediate plan of action of the Government of India for welfare and well-being of senior citizens of the country. All the issues of relevance to older persons have been taken into account in the scheme in order to ensure that older persons are not left behind and they can live a long and healthy life. It brings together articulation of each of the current schemes, future strategic plans, and targets and maps it with schemes/programmes, accountabilities, financials and clear outcomes. This Plan takes care of needs of the senior citizens viz. financial security, shelter, food, health care and human interaction / life of dignity. It also includes the facets of safety/protection and general wellbeing of the elderly beginning by generation of awareness and sensitization of the society

The Scheme has been formulated on the basis of several discussions and deliberations held with Officers of Central Ministries/Departments dealing with the issues related to the Senior Citizens and representatives from National Institute of Social Defence (NISD), National Institute of Rural Development and Panchayati Raj (NIRD), Regional Resource & Training Centres of Sr. Citizen Division of the Ministry and reports received from the seven Working Groups which were constituted for designing comprehensive programmatic initiatives covering (i) Promoting Financial Security (ii) Healthcare and nutrition (iii) Promoting livelihoods and income generating activities (iv) Schemes for Shelter and Welfare (v) Skilling and re-skilling senior citizens for productive aging (vi) Awareness and capacity building and (vii) Promoting silver economy, etc

3.4 Health and Nutrition support for indigent elders –SCWF Appendix D

Poshan Abhiyan for Elderly

Government has launched Poshan Abhiyan in order to address the nutritional deficiencies in various segments of the population with focus on adolescent boys and girls. However, studies have shown that nutritional standards in the elderly, especially in the rural areas are extremely low thereby reducing their immunity levels. This problem is extremely alarming in the destitute and indigent elders. If these are identified systematically and provided at least one nutritious meal during the day (mid-day), their quality of life will increase immensely. Hence, the Poshan Abhiyaan for the destitute elderly is proposed.

3.3.1 The balanced food for the destitute elders:

- Locally available fruits
- Locally available vegetables, especially green leafy vegetables
- Milk
- Eggs
- Pulses and cereals

3.3.2 The focus would be on procuring locally available healthy food material and serving hot-cooked meals mid-day.

3.3.3 The project can be implemented with a daily allowance of Rs.20 per destitute Sr. Citizen, which includes the administrative cost also.

3.3.4 Objectives

- To identify 10,000 Gram Panchayats for running Poshan Abhiyan among the elders with the coordination with the State Govt concerned.

- ii) To address the malnutrition problem in 3.5 lakh destitute and indigent elders through nutritional meal.
- iii) To use the Anganwadi centre as a day care centre for the elders.

3.7 Initiative for Channelization of Corporate social responsibility (CSR) funds for elderly care-Appendix-G

This initiative is to channelize the CSR funds in an appropriate manner for elderly care projects. Under Schedule VII of Section 135 of the Companies Act, setting up old age homes, day care centres and such facilities for Senior Citizens is an approved item for CSR funding. However, miniscule amount of CSR funding is flowing into the sector primarily because there is no shelf of projects which the Corporate can take up for funding.

Currently, there is no mechanism for identifying suitable projects for CSR funding in the Senior Citizen segment; and as such, there is an institutional gap in the implementation of this programme. This initiative proposes to bridge this gap.

Objective of this initiative:

- (i) To select reputed institutions through a transparent mechanism for taking up CSR Advocacy on behalf of the elderly segment.
- (ii) To enable preparation of a shelf of projects for CSR funding after due appraisal of the financial viability and socio-economic impact.
- (iii) To prepare an advocacy statement and reaching out to Corporates who are in the CSR bracket to encourage them to take up funding of the elderly care projects already appraised and placed in the shelf.
- (iv) To assist the corporate entities desirous of investing the elderly care segment by coordinating with the Central and State Govts.
- (v) To mobilise Rs.5,000 Cr over the next 5 years from the CSR funds for the elderly care projects.

In short, this will be a bridge between the government and corporate entities keeping in view the welfare of the senior citizens as its central concern.

Promoting silver economy

1. Equity participation in the START-UPS for elderly care.

The Government is committed towards providing innovative and out-of-the-box solutions for the commonly faced problems by promoting start-ups. The Start-Up policy of the Government has taken firm roots in the last 5 years and allowed flourishing of many technology start-ups. The elderly care segment has been of much interest among the highly educated youth to develop solutions which will serve the requirements of the aged population.

Currently there is a vacuum in comprehensively addressing the areas that concern the elderly covering areas like mental care, social connectivity, productive activity and product development for the elderly segment. A number of start-ups are showing interest in entering this area and providing the much required services.

Whereas the DPIIT has provided a clear direction for promotion of start-ups in the country, there is a need to support the start-ups entering the elderly care segment for the following reasons:-

- a) The profitability in the start-ups in the elderly care segment is minimal as they are addressing a social issue.
- b) The institutional banking network has been conservative in funding ventures for elderly care, restricting the scope for raising institutional finance for these ventures.
- c) There is a need to sift the start-ups which have lasting impact in providing solutions to the elderly issues, vis-a-vis the fly-by-night operators.
- d) A societal response for the elderly problems has not been upto the mark as reflected in the miniscule expenditure for the elderly welfare in the public finance. Promotion of start-ups can bridge this gap.

1.1 Objectives

- i) To call for, through a transparent process, the innovative ideas for the elderly care and promoting them into start-ups by providing equity support.
- ii) To encourage youth in the best higher educational institutions to think about the problems of the elderly and come out with innovative solutions.
- iii) To encourage institutional banking set up to fund such ventures.

1.2 Eligibility

The following categories would be eligible under the scheme:-

1. Channelizing CSR funds for Elderly care

This initiative is to channelize the CSR funds in an appropriate manner for elderly care projects. Under Schedule VII of Section 135 of the Companies Act, setting up old age homes, day care centres and such facilities for Senior Citizens is an approved item for CSR funding. However, miniscule amount of CSR funding is flowing into the sector primarily because there is no shelf of projects which the Corporate can take up for funding.

Currently, there is no mechanism for identifying suitable projects for CSR funding in the Senior Citizen segment; and as such, there is an institutional gap in the implementation of this programme. This initiative proposes to bridge this gap.

1.1 Objectives

- (i) To select reputed institutions through a transparent mechanism for taking up CSR Advocacy on behalf of the elderly segment.
- (ii) To enable preparation of a shelf of projects for CSR funding after due appraisal of the financial viability and socio-economic impact.
- (iii) To prepare an advocacy statement and reaching out to Corporates who are in the CSR bracket to encourage them to take up funding of the elderly care projects already appraised and placed in the shelf.
- (iv) To assist the corporate entities desirous of investing the elderly care segment by coordinating with the Central and State Govts.
- (v) To mobilise Rs.5,000 Cr over the next 5 years from the CSR funds for the elderly care projects.

In short, this will be a bridge between the government and corporate entities keeping in view the welfare of the senior citizens as its central concern.

1.2 Modalities

A reputed higher education institution or such other agency would be identified through a transparent mechanism to do CSR advocacy work. The agency entrusted with the task will work with the Ministry (represented by NISD) for deciding the modalities for the CSR advocacy work.

1.3 Funding

The funding to the identified agency will be 5% of the CSR funds brought into the elderly care segment through its advocacy. The payment to the identified agency will in proportion to their performance.

1.4 Type of projects

The following could be the list of projects that can be funded through CSR funds (suggestive not exhaustive):-

- i) Senior Citizen Homes for destitute focussing in the aspirational districts
- ii) Setting up employment portals for re-employment of retired persons.
- iii) Funding activities such as meals-on-wheels for feeding destitute elders in the urban areas

E. Awareness Generation for welfare of Senior Citizens

- 1.1 There has been a steady rise in the population of senior citizens in India. The number of elderly persons increased from 1.98 crore in 1951 to 7.6 crore in 2001, and 10.38 crore in 2011. As per the Report of the Technical Group on Population Projections for India and States (2011-2036) submitted to National Commission on Population, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare the population of senior citizens in India is projected to increase from 10.38 crore in 2011 to 23 crores in 2036. The total population of India is projected to increase from 121.10 crore in 2011 to 152.20 crore in 2036. Therefore the percentage of senior citizens against total population is expected to increase from 8.4% to 14.9%.
- 1.2 With growth of urbanization the rural to urban migration has resulted in lesser number of joint families, which has eventually resulted in the senior citizens living alone and unattended. At this age, when they need family support most, they have to live on their own. Even where senior citizens have children living with them, the former may not be getting the time from them. However there is need to bridge the gap between the senior citizens and others. Children, grandchildren, professionals, institutions, etc. need to play a part.
- 1.3 The senior citizens are required to be made aware of their rights and also that each elderly person stores in himself/ herself a lifetime of knowledge, which is earned only through experience. This store of knowledge is required to be researched upon, so as to convert the knowledge and the problems faced by these senior citizens into quantifiable parameters.

1.4 The elderly people of India are required to be facilitated for being digitally aware, especially in today's scenario where a smartphone is a digital platform for financial inclusion

2. Objectives of the Scheme

The Scheme aims at spreading awareness in the society and among the senior citizens regarding:-

- (i) The experience and knowledge of the senior citizens that can be tapped and passed on to the younger generations.
- (ii) The rights of the senior citizens to lead a dignified life.
- (iii) The duties of the society, the family members towards the senior citizens and the penalties that they can attract if these duties are not adhered to.

3. Implementing Agencies

The National Institute of Social Defence, an autonomous organization under the Ministry, is the nodal institute for interventions in the area of Social Defence. The Institute is mainly involved in conducting training and awareness programmes pertaining to care for Senior Citizens, Drug Abuse Prevention and other Social Defence issues, in collaboration with Regional Resource & Training Centres (RRTCs), Schools, Colleges, Universities, State Institutes of Rural Development (SIRDs), Police Academies, Prison Departments and other Institutes /Organisations.

4 (i) Sensitization of Children

Intergenerational gap is natural phenomenon. But in India life has changed rapidly and very drastically over the last few decades - computers, satellite TV, better income opportunities, etc. As a result, people are more exposed to media and new ideas. This has no doubt resulted in a large generation gap.

Majority of children are forced to live away from their grandparents and hence they are unaware about specific needs & requirements of their grandparents.

Today, there is an urgent need to bridge the ever-increasing intergenerational gap and create an older persons-friendly environment. We need to initiate & promote intergenerational communication among all the three generations – children, parents and grand-parents.

The education system can play a significant role in sensitizing younger children towards the senior citizens and bridging the inter-generational gap. There is a need to create an older persons friendly environment and also to prepare children and their parents (through sensitized children) for better old age in long term and give them a sense of being responsible.

As a first step towards institutionalizing awareness among young children it is proposed to initiate a dialogue with school going children in government as well as private schools between the age group of 8 to 15 years (from class III to class X) on the following:-

- Sensitize them about old age and its wisdom, needs of an old person and how we can make old age more meaningful for them.
- Sensitize them about importance of older persons in our respective families and society.

To reach the children 8 to 15 years (from class III to class X) through their schools it is proposed to reach across to a select group of minimum 100,000 students from 200 schools representing all levels of society across the country. The National Institute of Social Defence (NISD), an autonomous body under the Ministry, being the implementing agency, will select 10-12 cities from the country from which the participating schools will be selected. The NISD will choose these cities from the following regions of India:-

- Northern Region – Delhi, Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Punjab, Himachal Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Jammu & Kashmir, Ladakh & Chandigarh
- Western Region – Maharashtra, Gujarat, Goa, and Dadra and Nagar Haveli & Daman and Diu.
- Central Region – Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Rajasthan & Jharkhand
- Southern Region – Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Karnataka, Puducherry, Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Lakshadweep
- Eastern Region – Bihar, West Bengal, Odisha.
- North Eastern Region- Assam, Sikkim, Arunachal Pradesh, Nagaland, Manipur, Mizoram Tripura and Meghalaya.

Part-III

As brought out in the Scope and Coverage of the Scheme (Annexure II), there are several strategies which can be implemented only in convergence with other Ministries and Departments of the Government of India.
